Office Update

Although it is summer, our trial practice continues to be very brisk. Almost all court proceedings are in person and hearings and trials are going forward.

To a certain extent we believe many depositions will continue to be done by zoom as it can save money for each side. We are grateful that the court system is fully open now.

KEY EVIDENCE YOU NEED TO COLLECT FOLLOWING A CAR ACCIDENT

Make no mistake, finding your bearing following a car accident can be a daunting task. Between finding out if you and your passengers are fine to calling 911 to processing the fact that you have just been involved in an accident, it is easy to find yourself confused....

Employee Spotlight

Carrol Ching

Carrol is a long-time Virginia native, interrupted only by a stint in Los Angeles many years ago. Originally from the Richmond area, Carrol worked as a Certified Public Accountant for Deloitte & Touche, now Deloitte, after graduating from the College of William and Mary with a B.B.A. in Accounting. After leaving Deloitte, Carrol worked as a financial accountant and accounting manager for a Fortune 200 corporation for several years before attending law school at Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia. She and her family decided to make their home in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains and moved to Roanoke after law school. Carrol worked as a law clerk for the Honorable Glen E. Conrad, United States District Judge for the Western District of Virginia, both as a term and career law clerk, before she began working with John Fishwick, now with Fishwick &

Associates PLC. Carrol has a passion for justice, which she brings to all the work she does for our clients, along with her accounting background and attention to detail. She and her husband have two sons, with one now in college, along with three cats, one dog, seven chickens, and tropical fish. Carrol also keeps busy working in her vegetable garden, hiking, kayaking, and baking.

What's Happening Outside the Office?

With Summer upon us, the team at Fishwick and Associates have been busy outside the office enjoying the warm weather and events in the Star City.

Attorney and Owner John Fishwick and Legal Assistant and Marketing Director Jack Fishwick competed in the 36th Annual Carolina's Cup, a National Father-Son tennis tournament, in Greenville South Carolina. The Father-Son duo would come up short in the finals and take home the Second Place Trophy.

Paralegal Cristina Sanchez-Jones attended the Annual Roanoke Valley Sister Cities Dinner at the Center in the Square

Legal Assistant Rebecca Eichelberger and her Family hiked the Otter Creek Trail on the Blue Ridge Parkway
