Office Update

Congratulations to Associate Daniel Martin for successfully arguing in Federal Court that our clients were entitled to compound interest on a case that we won.

In May, the Justice Department announced a settlement in a False Claims Act case where we and another firm represented the whistleblower. We are proud to work on these cases which seek to root out fraud on the Government and ultimately the taxpayers.

THE IMPORTANCE OF UIM COVERAGE IN VIRGINIA

By: Associate Attorney Daniel J. Martin

It's an all-too common scenario in Virginia. An innocent driver or pedestrian is involved in a motor vehicle accident, perhaps on Interstate 81 or on the streets of Roanoke, Virginia. Consequently, they suffer serious medical injuries, resulting in very high medical...

Employee Spotlight

Rebecca Eichelberger

Becky is an Illinois native who moved to Virginia in 1998. After working in a Veterinary Hospital for years, she made a career switch and joined our firm in 2009 as a Legal Assistant. Becky brings an invaluable quality to our team, giving everyone care and consideration. In addition to her work at our firm, Becky is a wife and stepmother/mother of four. She loves spending time with her husband, children, and their dog, Carmen. Outdoor activities and great food are a must as she enjoys running, hiking Virginia's mountain trails, traveling, and sailing.

What's Happening Outside the Office?

Members of the Fishwick and Associates team came together to participate in the Inaugural Runway 5K at the Roanoke-Blacksburg Regional Airport! The Runway 5K was in memory of Julie Jeavons, late wife of David Jeavons (ROA Director of Finance), and the proceeds from the race went towards benefiting the Carilion Cancer Center.

Legal Assistant and Marketing Director, Jack Fishwick, participated in the 12th Annual Conquer the Cove Race hosted at Carvins Cove in Roanoke, Virginia. The race consisted of two distances, a 25k and a full marathon. Jack placed 3rd in the 20-24 Age Group for the 25k Race.
